

Amnesty International Sacramento (A.I. Sacramento) 2017 activities in review

- All year – We were invited to table with petitions at four major music concerts.
- All year – We provided human rights education materials to area schools.
- January 2017 – A.I. Sacramento contingent marched together at The Women’s March
- February to April 2017– We advocated for refugee support resolutions in City and County and developed local refugee information material.
- April 2017– We had a free public showing of Fierce Green Fire: A History of the Environmental Movement along with a speaker on the subject.
- April 2017– We co-sponsored the March for Science and an A.I. Sacramento contingent marched together.
- April 2017– We met with Congresswoman Matsui's staff and persuaded the her to join the Lantos Human Rights Commission.
- May 2017– City of Sacramento adopted an immigration and refugee platform including A.I. Sacramento's suggested language on refugee resettlement.
- May 2017–We partnered with International Rescue Committee (IRC) to present a free community showing of an award-winning refugee movie – After Spring -- with speakers following. About 200 people attended
- June 2017– County of Sacramento adopted a Resolution co-written by A.I. Sacramento that supported resettlement of refugees in Sacramento County.
- September 2017 – We co-sponsored a film with the Asian-Pacific Bar Association about Japanese Internment Camps – And Then They Came for Us --which was followed by an expert panel discussion.
- October 2017 – We partnered with a local artist to create a human rights altar memorializing immigrants who died in detention or while crossing the border. We shared the altar at a community Dia De Los Muertos event and tabled with petitions and Amnesty International information.
- December 2017– We held two Write for Rights events to help save the lives of human rights defenders in other countries; the event participants wrote a total of 157 letters.
- December 2017– We voted to adopt a group Prisoner of Conscience (POC) from Bahrain.