Here are some pictures from the human rights altars we created in 2010 and 2011

2010: Our Altar honored those who gave their life as a human rights defenders in Mexico.

2011: Our Altar honored those Mexican immigrants who died as a result of their agricultural work in the fields.

2017: Our Altar will honor immigrants who died in detention facing deportation and those who died trying to cross the border to reunite with family in the US.
