Dear

The Guaranteed Refugee Ceiling Enhancement Act, or GRACE Act, would set the minimum refugee admissions number at 125,000 per year, in line with historical norms. I urge you to co-sponsor and support the GRACE ACT, which prevents a U.S. President from setting a Presidential Determination on Refugee Admissions at a level below 125,000.

There are more than 69 million forcibly displaced people in the world, escaping violence and war without any chance of returning to their former home. The number of refugees who need help is larger than ever and we must recommit the United States as a beacon of hope to those fleeing violence and persecution.

The GRACE Act safeguards our refugee resettlement program and holds the United States accountable in responding adequately to the needs of refugees. We cannot allow the number of those we aid continuously go up and down; real lives are in the balance.

I support our longstanding commitment to vulnerable people around the world. I welcome refugees to my community.

I ask that you co-sponsor and support the GRACE ACT.

Thank you,
